INVICORATING CORDIAL

FOR CENTIAL DEBILITY, IMPOTENCY, INCONTINUED ON NOCTURNAL RMISSIONS, &c.—The actionishing success which has attended this invaluable medicine, for Loss of Muscular Energy, Physical Lacritude, and General Prostration, or any of the consequences of youthful indiscretion, or indulgence of the passion in riper years, renders it the most valuable preparation aver discovered. General Prostrution, or any of the consequences of youthful indiscretion, or indulgence of the passion in riper years, renders it the most synable proparation feer discovered. In fact, as a remedy for the above complaints, it stands unriveilled and alone. There is no other reliable remady, or any that has authentically received the sanction of the Medical Faculty. The WONDERFUL VEGETABLE PRODUCTION of which this medicine is composed has been tested, and its virtues proclaimed, by the highest names of the faculty of London, Paris, and the chief either of Europe, as well as by eminent Physicians in this country. It is the only infallible remedy for NERVOUS, HEAD, and MIND COMPLAINTS—the mental physic so long sought for and never before found—the only agent that can administer to MIND DISKASES. It will remove all nervous affections, DEPRESSION, EXCITEMENT, incapacity to study or business, less of MEMORY, CONFUSION, thoughts destruction, fear of insanity, &c. It will restore the appetite, renew the health of those who have destroyed it by senual Recesses or evil practices. It has been said by some that these disorders, emissions, &c., were incurable. DR. MORSE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL has cured, and is constantly curing, these complaints—relieving the mental and bodily incapacity of the unfortunate safterer, as and is constantly curing these complaints relieving the mental and bodily incapacity of the unfortunate sufferer, as the following testimony of the names received will conclumental and bodily incapacity of the unfortunate sufferer, as the following testimony of the names received will conclusively show.

Dr. Woodward, of ——, Massachusetts Insane Hospital, writes of one of his patients being cured by using this Cordial thus: "It gives me pleasure to inform you that one of my patients, while in Boston, precured some of your Cordial. He tells me that he has not had a single emission since he commenced taking it, while before he had two or three a west. When he applied to me," says Dr. W., "I thought it hardly possible for him ever to regain his full strength. I prescribed the upual medicine used in those cases in the hespital, but they had no effect. In the mean time he purchased some of your Cordial, which has effected a cure I am sure no other medicine would. I shall ever recommend it, whenever an opportunity occurs."

The nature of the maladies relieved by this Cordial are generally such as to leave, the publication of certificates of cures out of the question. The proprietor could produce a host of the most conclusive estimenty to show that the great reputation it enjoys was not accidentally obtained, but is fruity based upon its positive and apparently mirraulous virtues. In all directions are to be found the happy parents of healthy offsprings, who would not have been so but for this extraordinary preparation. And it is equally potent for many diseases for which it is recommended.

THE MEDICAL JOURNALS
have not, in a single lustance that has been authenticated, given their saircolm for the above for many diseases for which it is recommended.

THE MEDICAL JUUKNALS
have not, in a single lustance that has been authenticated, given their sitiotion to any other preparation for the above complaints. It has, in many violent and desperate cases, effected radical cures, after patients had been abundanced, and their condition pronounced hopeless by medical practitioners of high professional character.

THE COMMON EXPERSSION of those who have used this Extract is: "I had heard your Cordial highly spoken... but was one of the incredulous in regard to its merits, having tried various medicines sold for the backs purpose, (dimenut Saraspanihas,) without deriving any bounds. I had among tives up all hope of obtaining relief, what I purchased some of your Cordial. I had no faith whatever of its bornetting me-but it has. I feel stronger, have had no emissions since, atthough it is not three weeks. I am satisfied that the half a dozen bottles I took will cure me."

Another says: "I had consulted escretal distinguished physicians. Some said I could not be cured; others prescribed this thing and that; but I hand no relief until I procured some of your Cordial. I had no procured some of your Cordial. I have no procured some of your Cordial. I have any it completely cured me."

Another says: "I was surprised at the effect your Cordial and. Why had I not heard of it before? It would have saved me so much expense, besides years of mental and bodily suffering."

CAUTION.—Ask for Dr. Moree's Cordial, and take no other, as there are worthless imitations which its unrivalled excellence, fame, and popularity, have brought into the market. It will not hard the most delicate famale, but degoed. Heweve of all other Cordials, &c., and try only this. It is put up in pint bottles, with the words Dr. MORRE'S INVIGIORATING CORDIAL blown on the glass. Price $5 per bottle; two bottles, $5; six bottles, $12; and $24 per dozen.

DR. JOHNSTON,
Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduate from one of the most eminent Colleges of the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia, and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astonishing cures that were ever known. Many troubled with ringing in the ears and head when asleep, great netwomens, being alarmed at sudden sounds, and bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

habit, which rule both body and mind, unfitting them for either business or society.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the Rack and Lumbs, Pains in the Head, Binness of Sight, Loss of Muscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspensia, Meryous Liritability, Decapement of the Digestive Functions, General Desility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c., &c.

Mentally.—The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion of Society, Self Distrust, Love of Solitinds, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

This grand and important Remedy has restored strength and vigor to thousands of the most debilitated individuals, namy, sho had lost all lopes, and been abandoned to die By its complete invigoration of the Nervous System, the shole faculties become restored to their proper power and unctions, and the fallen fabric of life is raised up to beauty, onsistency and duration, upon the ruins of an emaciated upd premature decline, to sound and pristine health. Oh, tow happy have hundreds of misguided youths been made, the have been suddenly restored to health from the devasations of those terrific maladies which result from indiscretion! Such persons, before contemplating tations of those terrific massures tations of those terrific massures that I such persons, before contemplating MARRIAGE, should reflect that a sound mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote connubial happiness. Indeed, without this, the journey through life becomes a weary piferinage; the prospect fleurly darkens to the view; the mind primage; the prospect fleurly darkens to the view; the mind becames shadowed with despair, and filled with the melanterm of the happiness of another becomes blightness.

A Sketch. It was night. Jerusalem slept as quietly amid her hills as a child upon the breast of its mother.

The zoiseless sentinel stood like a statue at his post, and the philosopher's light burned dimly in the recesses of his chamber.

But a darker night was abroad upon the earth. A moral darkness involved the nations in its un-NAY—Mr. Thornley—1.

Mr. Wirt, from the committee to which was a front the Board of Common Council respecting a gravel pit in the Fifth Ward, remering over the minds of men, like the cold and inefficient shining of a distant star. The immortality of man's spiritual nature was unknown, his relations to Heaven undiscovered, and his future destiny obscured in a cloud of mystery.

It was at this period that two forms of etherial mould hovered over the land of God's chosen people. They seemed sister angels sent to earth upon some embassy proved April 17, 1845, concerning paved cariage majestic stature; and in the well-formed limbs ways, was taken up, read three times, and passed which her snowy drapery hardly concented, in Mr. Hill, from the Committee to which was her erect bearing and steady eye, was exhibited referred the joint resolutions from this Board of the highest degree of strength and confidence respect to the memory of Daniel Webster, rerespect to the memory of Daniel Webster, respect to the memory of Daniel Webst drooping like the flower when unmoistened by refreshing dews, and her bright but troubled eye Council have learned with profound regret that scanned the sir with ardent but varying glances, the great statesman and jurist, Daniel Websten. Suddenly a light like the sun finshed out from the heavens, and Faith and Hope hailed with exulting songs the ascending Star of Bethlehem.

Years rolled away and a stranger was seen in Jerusalem. He was a meek and unassuming man, whose happiness seemed to consist in acts of benevolence to the human race. There were deep traces of sorrow on his countenance, though no one knew why he grieved, for he lived in the practice of every virtue, and was loved by all the wise and good. By-and-by it was rumored that the stranger worked miracles, that the blind saw, the dumb spake, and the dead leaped to life at his touch; that when he commanded, the ocean moderated its chafing tide, and the very thunders articulated, he is the Son of God. Envy assailed him with the charge of sorcery, and the voice of impious judges condemned him to death. Slowly and thickly guarded, he ascended the hill of Calvary. A heavy cross bent him to the earth. But Faith leaned upon his arm, and Hope dipping her pinions in his blood, mounted to the skies.

JUDICIAL DIGNITY.-The following conversation is said to have taken place between a venerable old lady and a certain quandem Judge of this county. The learned disciple of Blackstone was supported on his right and left by his worthy associates, when Mrs. P. was called up to give
